Re: In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, 03-md-1570 (GBD) (SN)

Dear Judge Netburn:

This firm, along with Morvillo Abramowitz Grand Iason & Anello P.C., represents Kreindler & Kreindler LLP (the “Firm”) in connection with the Firm’s appeal of your Honor’s order dated September 21, 2022. I write concerning the mandamus petition (the “Petition”) attached to the February 2, 2023 letter to Judge Daniels from Edward Spiro of the Morvillo firm.

After serving the Petition on all parties to the MDL via the Court’s ECF system, see ECF No. 8856-1, counsel for defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (“KSA”) objected to one sentence in the Background section of the Petition (Page 7, Section B, second sentence). We asked the Clerk’s Office to issue an emergency provisional seal on the Petition to provide us an opportunity to assess KSA’s objection.

The Firm disagrees with KSA’s position but to avoid burdening the Court with unnecessary motion practice, the Firm has no objection to the sentence in question being redacted from the public version filed on ECF, with all MDL parties retaining the ability to access the unredacted Petition at ECF No. 8856-1. We therefore respectfully request that the Court authorize the ECF Clerk to accept a redacted filing for public access, with all MDL parties retaining the ability to access the unredacted Petition at ECF No. 8856-1. We understand that KSA consents to this request.

Because the Second Circuit clerk’s office is awaiting our confirmation of service of the Petition on all MDL parties, we ask that you consider this request on an expedited basis. Thank you for your Honor’s consideration of this request.

Respectfully Submitted,
